Parking Permits

Parking Notice: As of the fall 2001 semester the University will no longer issue commuter permits to undergraduate students living off-campus on public transportation lines. This policy change was necessitated by the severe parking shortages the University experienced this year and will effect all students residing in Allston, Boston, Brighton, Chestnut Hill and Brookline.

Faculty, staff, and students who park vehicles on the Boston College campus between 1:30 A.M. and 3:30 P.M. weekdays are required to have a parking permit. Students and faculty arriving for classes after 3:30 P.M. may park on the lower or Newton campuses without purchasing parking permits.

There is a new process in place for undergraduate commuters who want to obtain parking permits for the fall 2000 semester. Reference the Office of Student Services' web site at <http://www.bc.edu/studentservices> for further information.

The number of parking spaces for resident students is limited. They are prioritized for resident seniors and juniors who are involved in University-sponsored field practica and three-credit internships to fulfill degree requirements. All such requests must be directed to the designated University official.

Registration Procedures

Graduate Students

The fall 2000 on-line registration and drop/add period for all graduate students will continue through 11:00 P.M. on September 11. Graduate students in GSA&S, CGSOM, LGSOE, GSON, and GSSW who register before August 15, 2000, will have their registration fee waived. This waiver only applies to those students who complete their registration by August 15. Students who add courses after August 15 will be charged the $15 registration fee.

Students registered for Doctoral Continuation in the spring will be registered for the fall unless they graduate in May or are enrolled in programs that require departmental permission. Those students whose departments require permission need to obtain a departmental override. Graduate students using Lynch School of Education teaching vouchers should see Patricia O'Kane in the Office(s) of Students and Outreach.

Special Students who have not applied to a degree program or who have applied but have not yet been accepted and wish to take graduate level courses must apply as special students to the appropriate graduate school. This policy also applies to students who wish to take graduate level courses using teaching vouchers and have not applied or been accepted into a graduate school at Boston College. Those who have previously taken courses using vouchers should contact the Admission Offices to be readmitted.

Undergraduate Students

The fall 2000 registration and drop/add period for undergraduates will continue through 11:00 P.M. on September 11.

Graduate and undergraduate students register and drop/add using either the U-View Plus system—available from any computer terminal or micro-computer with a network (EagleNet) connection or with a dialup (modem) connection to BC's administrative mainframe computer—or the U-Dial/voice-response system. U-Dial can be accessed from a touch-tone telephone by dialing 617-552-8800. The registration systems will be available seven days a week (with exceptions) until 11:00 P.M. through September 11. All students may drop/add any time after they have registered. Drop/adds after September 11 must be approved by the appropriate department/Dean's Office.

Registration Information

Course Descriptions

Access the Office of Student Services' Web site for course descriptions at the following address: <http://www.bc.edu/courses>. Use the Schedule of Courses on the Web to determine the index, section numbers, and the meeting time of each course. You may also browse courses on U-View Plus by using the "C" option, which will access both fall and spring semester courses, or search for courses by instructor name, by course title, and by open courses (not closed or canceled).

Course Restrictions/Closed Courses

An asterisk (*) next to a course indicates a restriction. The specific restriction is printed underneath the course. Courses may be restricted by school (e.g., For Education Only), by degree (e.g., For Doctoral Students Only), or by major (e.g., For Economics Majors Only). Other courses, or sections of courses, may be held by the department so that they are unavailable during certain periods of registration. Some courses (including all graduate courses) may be available to undergraduates with department permission only. Note: If you are planning to change your major, be sure to check the General Information section for instructions.

Overrides

In exceptional cases, a department may decide to override a course restriction. If you wish to obtain an override for a course that was closed or restricted when you registered, see the department offering the course. If the department chairperson or assistant decides to allow you to register for the course, he or she will give you an Approval/Override form. The form must be stamped in the appropriate section: Open/Restricted overrides school, major, degree and department restrictions; Override for a Closed Course overrides all restrictions and size limits for closed courses. In rare cases you may need to obtain permission to override a corequisite or to register for two courses that conflict in time. In those cases the Approval for Time Conflict must be signed.

If you obtain an override for a restricted or closed course take the form to Lyons Hall after you have registered. You cannot process overrides through U-Dial or U-View Plus.

Students in A&S, CSOM, and SON, who maintain a 3.00 GPA, may add a sixth course on-line (up to 20 credits) during the first week of classes.

Registration Holds

If you have an outstanding balance on your student account, are missing a transcript from a university you attended previously, or have failed to submit proof of immunization to the Health Services Office, a hold may be placed on your registration. If a registration hold message appears on the screen, you must see the appropriate office to resolve the situation before you can register.

Immunization Requirement

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts requires that all full-time college students show proof of immunization against measles (2 doses), mumps, rubella, tetanus-diphtheria, and tuberculosis (tuberculosis test within the past 2 years). If you have not submitted the Immunization Verification form you must do so before registering. Students who fail to provide proof of immunization prior to registering for their second semester at Boston College will not be permitted to register. To obtain an Immunization Verification form contact Health Services at 617-552-3225 in Cushing Hall. Immunization Verification forms may also be downloaded from the Health Services web site at http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/svp/uhs/immuform.html.

Students whose personal religious beliefs forbid immunization or who can provide physician’s documentation that immunizations should not be given because of pre-existing medical problems should contact Health Services.

All forms must be completed and returned by June 19, otherwise a “hold” will be placed upon your I.D. and class registration will be blocked. If the forms are not complete within 30 days from the beginning of the semester, your student account will be charged a $50 administrative fee.

Massachusetts Medical Insurance

Commonwealth of Massachusetts Law has mandated that all students, graduate and undergraduate, taking at least 75 percent of full-time credit hours must be covered by medical insurance providing a specified minimum coverage. Determination of whether or not a graduate student is required to enroll in the insurance program is based strictly on the actual number of credits for which the student is registered each semester.

Graduate students in the Schools of Social Work, Management, and Advancing Studies who register for 9 or more credits are considered 75 percent of full-time. Graduate students in the Schools of Arts and Sciences, Nursing and Education who register for 7 or more credits are considered 75 percent of full-time.

Please note: All doctoral students at Boston College will automatically be charged for the Boston College Medical Insurance unless a waiver is submitted showing comparable insurance.

Boston College will offer all students—graduate and undergraduate—the option of participating in the plan offered at the University or submitting a waiver. The details of the University’s Insurance plan are available on the U-View system or on the World Wide Web at agora.bc.edu.

Students may waive the BC insurance plan by completing the electronic waiver form on U-View or on the World Wide Web. Students under the age of 18 are required to submit a written waiver form with the signature of their parent/guardian. This form is available for download on the Web at www.bc.edu/studentservices. The waiver must be completed and submitted by October 6, 2000, for the fall semester and by February 9, 2001, for spring semester. Students who do not complete a waiver by the due dates will be enrolled and billed for the BC plan.

All part-time Bachelor and Master’s students, including those registered for Master’s Interim Study, who wish to purchase health insurance must enroll directly with the insurance company. The part-time enrollment form available at the Boston College Health Services department in Cushing Hall, at Walter W. Sussenguth and Associates, or on the Web at www.bc.edu/studentservices. The coverage becomes effective upon receipt of the application and payment by the insurer if received after the due dates above.

These restrictions include denied access to Housing and the Athletic Complex, use of the Meal Plan, the ability to drop and add courses, and to cash checks at the Cashier’s Office. In severe cases, students will be withdrawn from the University. In addition, a $100 late payment fee will be assessed on any account that is not resolved by the due date. There will be absolutely no registration or confirmation of registration allowed after October 27, 2000.

Mailing Address Update

Undergraduate and graduate students can change their local, home, or parents’ addresses and telephone numbers on-line at <http://agora.bc.edu>. Be sure to update your local address for next semester to insure that you receive important mailings concerning registration, graduation, grades, and housing. The Dean of Students needs your local address in case of emergencies.

Because of the increasing number of students who need to have grades sent to more than one address, a second address file for grades has been established. To have grades mailed to more than one address, please notify Student Services by mail or in person. The request must include your name, Eagle Number, school, second address, and signature. Your name and second address will be placed on file and grades mailed to both your home and second address each semester until you graduate.

Loan Certification

The National Student Loan Clearinghouse will process deferment forms after September 11 for fall 2000 in accordance with Federal regulations. If you need an enrollment certification for deferment of a student loan, mail or fax the forms to the following address: Office of Student Services, Lyons Hall, Chestnut Hill, MA 02467 or stop by Lyons 101. Your deferment form will be forwarded to the National Student Loan Clearinghouse. If the enrollment certification does not require an official school seal or signature, you may process the certification on-line at <http://agora.bc.edu>.

If you register for Interim Study, Thesis Direction, Doctoral Continuation, Doctoral Comprehensives, a full-time Student Teaching Practica, or Internship, you are considered a full-time student. If you are a Graduate Assistant for an academic department, a Teaching Assistant, Teaching Fellow, Research Assistant, or University Fellow, you may be considered full-time with less than the normal full-time credit load. This full-time category applies only to loans and is not considered full-time status for automatic medical insurance enrollment. Special Programs

The Program for the Study of Faith, Peace, and Justice

This program offers students the opportunity to examine and intensify their faith commitments and to explore the significance of these commitments for the task of bringing about just and peaceful solutions to national and international problems. The Program sponsors courses, campus events, and special activities for its participants.

A&S or CSOM students who meet the academic requirements of the Program may minor in Faith, Peace, and Justice Studies. Alternatively, students may choose to concentrate on faith, peace, and justice concerns within their major field. In either case the same pattern applies, (i.e., an introductory course, UN 160 The Challenge of Justice, four intermediate courses taken with the advice and consent of the Director, and finally, UN 590 the Senior Seminar Project).

Campus events include speakers, religious ceremonies, student-faculty conferences, and less formal exchanges on issues of faith, peace, and justice. Special activities for participants of the Program include retreats, service days, lectures, discussions, and socials.

For further information, please contact Prof. Matthew Mullane, Carney 417, 617-552-3886.

PULSE Program

The PULSE Program provides students with the opportunity to explore questions of philosophy, theology, and other disciplines in courses which incorporate field work experience in one of Boston’s many social service organizations. Through the combination of academic reflection and community service, students are provided with a framework for understanding the intimate relationship between theory and practice.

Enrollment in the course Person and Social Responsibility is one of the options for fulfilling the Core requirement in Philosophy and Theology. In light of classic philosophical and theological texts, social science, fiction, and poetry, PULSE students address topics such as the relationship of self and society, the nature of community, the mystery of suffering and the practical difficulties of developing a just society, urbanism, homelessness, and alienation. PULSE students are challenged to investigate the insights offered by their readings in relation to their service work. Enrollment in the core level PULSE course is limited to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Spots in the course are very limited and are allocated on a first-come first served basis.

For those students who want to continue their experience with the PULSE program or who were unable to enroll in the Core level class, several elective courses are offered. A philosophy and English course entitled Stories and Service looks at topics such as urbanism, homelessness, and alienation through texts by social scientists, novelists, philosophers, and poets. Other PULSE elective course titles are Values in Social Service and Health Care and Boston: An Urban Analysis.

All PULSE courses require a ten to twelve hour per week commitment to service. Carefully selected field placements in youth work, the correctional system, emergency shelters, AIDS and HIV services, legal and community advocacy, and literacy programs become the context in which students forge a critical and compassionate perspective both on society and on themselves.

University Capstone Courses

Reserved for seniors and second-semester juniors only, the Capstone program is designed to cap off college by facing the questions of life after graduation. The Capstone Seminars (UN 500-525) directly address the hopes and anxieties that seniors face but seldom find treated in traditional courses. They relate the life and learning of the past four years to the life and learning ahead. The Capstone Seminars take seriously the struggle to integrate four crucial areas of life: work, relationships, free time, and the search for the purpose of existence.

Ask some inevitable questions now, not later. How did my education prepare me to live? With everything I want to do, what will I have to compromise? How can I balance my career and my family? Can I find work with a higher meaning than my income?

Special features of the course:

- Faculty from various departments
- Each section limited to 15-20
- Class meetings held in leisurely, informal settings
- Innovative teaching methods, such as keeping a journal, interdisciplinary reading, guest speakers from professional life
- Capstone Seminars satisfy major requirements in certain departments.

To Register for a Capstone Seminar

You must be a senior or a second-semester junior to take the course. Different Capstone Seminars will be offered each semester. All Seminars are interdisciplinary: you may register for any one of the Seminars as a University (UN) course. If you find a particular Seminar closed, try to register under the cross-listed number (e.g., if UN 523 is closed, try to register for the class as TH 523, and vice versa). The Seminar can count as an elective for all students. For majors in English, Philosophy, and Theology, it can satisfy the major requirements if the student takes a seminar as cross-listed in the department of his/her major. Students are reminded that several Capstone seminars are cross-listed, both as University courses with a UN number and also as courses in the department of the professor offering the course. In case a course is closed be sure to check whether there is space under its cross-listed number.

Students must also understand the following rule:

NB: No student may take more than one Capstone seminar during his/her undergraduate years. Thus, you may not take two Capstone courses in one semester or in two different semesters. This is true whether the course is listed under a UN number or as course in a specific department. If a second Capstone course appears on your record, it will be removed. This could make you ineligible for graduation.

CL 217 Heroic Poetry: Homer, Virgil and Beyond (Fall: 3)

Cross listed with EN 084.06

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

We have two fundamental aims: to explore the process of reading literary texts closely and analytically, and to explore the tradition of heroic or “epic” poetry. Readings will range from as far back as 3,000 B.C.E. (the earliest parts of the Near Eastern story of Gilgamesh), through the poems of Homer and Virgil (set in the age of the Trojan War, but composed much later and against quite different cultural backgrounds) to the adaptation of epic grandeur to Christian theology by Milton and the parody of epic grandeur in the satire of Alexander Pope.

EN 080 Literary Forms (Fall/Spring: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

Courses listed under this title are meant to increase awareness of form and genre as significant factors in the experience of reading literature. They address formal genres like the novel, lyric poetry, and drama, or multi-genre forms like tragedy, comedy, romance, or other ideas of “form.” They include examples of forms from different literary periods to study their variety and development.

The Department

EN 080.01 Literary Forms (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

Reading, writing and wide-ranging discussions about poetry, drama and fiction (the short story), and how the forms of each genre interplay with the others. The poetry section will range from the Medieval ballad and the sonnet up through free verse and Jazz improvisations. We’ll include the more canonical figures—Shakespeare, Donne, Herbert, Pope, Johnson, Wordsworth, Keats, Hopkins, Browning, Hardy, Whitman, Dickinson, Yeats, Frost, Eliot, Stevens, Williams, Hart Crane, Langston Hughes, D.H. Lawrence, Dylan Thomas, and then move up to some of the more recent poets, like Elizabeth Bishop, Robert Lowell, John Berryman, Seamus Heaney, Philip Levine, Yusef Komunyakaa, Rita Dove, Bill Matthews, and Louis Glück.

We’ll also study plays by Sophocles, Shakespeare, Ibsen, Arthur Miller, and David Mamet and try out some scenes in class as a way of better understanding the interplay of psychological forces that makes the human condition so varied and interesting. And, as time allow, we may look at a short story or two to see narrative interplays with character and language. There will be regular writing assignments (including the chance to revise your work) and class presentations throughout the semester.

Paul Mariani

Subversion, invention, and creativity: reading for the origins of art and the uses of form in art. What leads artists to invent forms of story telling which subvert the conventional expectations of the reader? Do politics or the private lives of artists generate the most creative ferment? If a work of art departs from cultural norms, can classroom readings recover what was radical or different in the artist’s vision? Our major texts will be Shakespeare’s The Tempest, Dickens’s Nicholas Nickleby, poets Heaney and Hughes’s anthology The Rattle Bag, Winterson’s The World and Other Places, and Jarmusch’s film Down By Law; with secondary readings in photography (Eggleston, Sherman, and Mann), experimental film (Brakhage’s Dog Star Man, Nicholas Nickleby).

We will read some works in purposely subversive ways, analyzing Nicholas Nickleby by taking it apart and reordering the flow of narrative, reading The Tempest as a play script rather than a stable text, assessing poetry for its politics as well as its lyricism. Assignments will include experimental writing, exercises in structured reading, a presentation, and two graded essays (one midterm and one final). Individual and group conferences with the instructor will be scheduled during the semester. Students who sign up for this course should plan to be actively and energetically involved in class discussion, presentations, and small group workshops.

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

Drawing from literary works of different genres from various time period and perspectives, we will examine the way in which the American Dream has been defined and even contradicted. Works will be studied both by considering their chosen form and how the reader reacts to it as well as the way in which our particular theme, the American Dream and the realities which may denounce it, is developed in each. Texts will include Native Son, The House on Mango Street, Fences, and Death of a Salesman, among others.

Karen Corr

EN 080.04 Literary Forms (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

This course will focus on the ways in which humans, through fiction, have formed their identities through rebellion against prevailing social, literary, and personal norms and customs. We will examine how these rebellions and consequent identities are intimately linked with literary expression and the evolution of literary forms. Readings will focus on (but not be limited to) American literature, since much of it has been concerned with our theme. Works may include the following: revolutionary, Franklin’s Autobiography; gothic, Brown’s Edgar Huntly; sentimental, Rowson’s Charlotte Temple; romantic, Poe’s stories; social satire, Twain’s stories; and 20th century fiction which includes a range of angles on our theme, from the immigrant experience in Brown’s Manchild in the Promised Land, to the 50’s and 60’s rebellions in Salinger, Kerouac and Vonnegut.

Thomas Kaplan-Maxfield

EN 080.05 Literary Forms (Fall: 3)

The “form” in the title of the course refers immediately to the types of literary genres in the text: drama, fiction, poetry. While the authors choose a certain form as the best mode for their thought and imaginative expression, you, the reader, impose a kind of internal form on what you read. The class will explore some of these approaches, hopefully connecting author and reader, poem or story and the private/public world of the reader.

EN 081 Literary Themes

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

These courses follow a particular “theme” through several genres and historical periods or cultures, focusing especially on elements in the themes which persist, and seem to address what is enduring in human experience, but addressing also elements of the theme which change with the literary genres or the historical period and culture.

EN 081.01 Literary Themes: Visions of Guilt and Innocence (Fall: 3)

In this course we will explore the themes of guilt and innocence in works of many periods—from the ancient Greeks to the contemporary—and across genres: fiction, plays and poetry. We will explore how writers, and characters, define or imply moral standings in actions, and examine the consequences when certain characters betray those standings. Throughout the semester, then, we will consider concepts of responsibility, culpability, faithfulness and betrayal. We will also consider standards of guilt and circumstance and the reliability of the teller of the tale.

EN 081.02 Literary Themes (Fall: 3)

From its earliest examples, literature has been used to explore our changing perceptions of the natural world. Nature has been viewed as a source of wonder and inspiration, an escape from the constraints/protections of an increasingly intrusive society that can liberate or terrify. In nature, the laws of man are secondary to laws that were defined long before. It is a locus where cultural identities are both created and dissolved. In this course, we will consider all of this—and more—so come prepared to think and question.

Texts include creation myths, selections from The Odyssey, Shakespeare’s A Midsummer Night’s Dream, Romantic poetry, short stories from Crane and London, Conrad’s Heart of Darkness, as well as short works from additional authors and films. Course requirements will include reading quizzes, two short papers and one longer paper. Enthusiasm and interest are prerequisites.

The pairings will include such works as the following: Faulkner’s The Sound and the Fury and Gloria Naylor’s Mama Day; Bronte’s Jane Eyre and Rhys’ Wide Sargasso Sea; Allende’s House of the Spirits, and Power’s Grass Dancer.

EN 081.04 Literary Themes (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

To err is human, hence our fascination with the mistakes of others. In this course we will attempt to understand the complexities of the human condition as we immerse ourselves in the crimes and misdemeanors of fictional subjects. The literature will show a range of causes and motivations as it invites questions of guilt and innocence. We will examine each text as it reflects the social and literary conventions of its time, as well as the particular styles and perspectives of its author. We will work with writers like Camus, Dostoevsky, Miller, Poe, Stevenson, Shakespeare, Wilde, Wright, and Woody Allen, in the forms of short and long fiction, drama, poetry, and film.

EN 081.07 Literary Themes (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

Through the medium of literature—specifically poetry and fiction—we will look at some of the major themes that shape our public and private imagination. Hopefully our readings will take us beyond the “information age” to insight into the themes that reside at the heart of good literature, e. g., birth and death, communion and conflict, acceptance and denial.

EN 082 Literature and Society (Fall/Spring: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

Courses listed under this title treat literature as an integral part of a larger cultural experience. They examine the relationship between literary works and specific social issues as the relationship develops in particular cultures across time. These courses may use several kinds of cultural and historical documents both to link literature to culture and to raise the question of how, and whether, to distinguish some of them as “literature.”

EN 082.01 Literature and Society: Staging the American Family (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

What makes an American family? Is the family a constraint or a haven, a blessing or a curse? Is it in crisis? In this course we will read representative nineteenth-and twentieth-century texts—mostly plays, but some fiction and poetry—that “stage” the American family in an attempt to understand a culture in process. We will investigate how “family values,” together with our very notion of what constitutes a family, have shifted in response to changing social, cultural, and sexual mores. Our playwrights may well include Eugene O’Neill, Arthur Miller, Tennessee Williams, Sam Shepard, Lillian Hellman, and Tony Kushner.

EN 082.03 Literature and Society (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

This course treats the subject of individual and group alienation from a number of related but separate vantage points—social, moral, political, religious, intellectual, economic. Readings will be examined critically (close reading) and contextually (culturally); the hope is to strike a balance. Occasionally, a film will be shown. The class is a discussion class, interrupted by an occasional lecture. Students are required to write two essays, 7-9 pages each. Readings are as follows: Madame Bovary, Flaubert; Where I’m Calling From, Carver; Affliction, Banks; The Moviegoer, Walker Percy; The Great Gatsby, Fitzgerald; The Joys of Motherhood, Emecheta; and The Complete Stories, O’Connor.

War is a reality in our lives, whether it is being played out before us, recorded in our public and private memories, or reflected in our literature. In this class we will look at various images of and ideas about war and analyze how the subject has been approached through the literature of different periods. Some of the questions we will be asking about the topic and the texts are the following: Do these authors ever think that glory and honor prevail? Are the texts more concerned with resistance to war than combat? How do the topics, characters, perspectives affect you, the reader, and why? What different things can we learn from each perspective? In the literature we will not just examine the broad ideas of war, but the effects of it on the characters’ minds, beliefs, and daily lives (both during and after war periods). We will be moving beyond generalized ideas of war as fighting and death to look at how war figures into a love story, into survival and recovery, cultural assimilation, gender relations, etc. We will also analyze the images of war that we see around us and how they depict war, whether it be a small statue on a street corner, a plaque commemorating a battle in downtown Boston, or a larger national monument like the Vietnam War Memorial in Washington. Since war reaches so deeply into the way societies work and think, we won't just be looking at stories about soldiers, but at how we ourselves think and form our own ideas about the subject.

Texts: Henry V, A Farewell to Arms, World War I British Poets, Maus I and II, Ceremony, The Things They Carried, Possessing the Secret of Joy.

America, The Land of the Free: Native American and African American Stories Within American Society lies the promise of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Is this promise fulfilled for minority groups who live in the larger society? What has happened to their lives? Their freedom? Their right to happiness? In this course we will read stories (folk tales and myths, short stories, slave narratives, and novels) by and about Native Americans and African Americans that will celebrate their cultures along with presenting the difficulties their cultures have faced living in America.

Readings will include: Paula Gunn Allen’s Spider Woman’s Granddaughters, Silko’s Ceremony, Douglass’ Life of an American Slave, Morrison’s Beloved, plus several films.

Fictional settings let readers enter the lives of others, internalize the characters’ problems and relate directly to the ethical questions their personalities and situations create. This course features works of great moral power that encourage self-examination and challenge existing assumptions, behavior, and “truths” that have been shaped by cultural experience, social institutions, and ideology. Above all, the essential question is asked: What does it mean to be a human being?

Readings include: Ibsen, A Doll’s House and The Wild Duck; Hardy, The Mayor of Casterbridge; Miller, Death of a Salesman; Cormier, The Chocolate War.

EN 083 Literature: Traditions and Countertraditions (Fall/Spring: 3)

These courses put two “traditions” of literature in English into dialogue with one another. They attempt to define the concept of a literary tradition, and to explore the ways it may develop in relation, opposition, or parallel with other traditions. Most courses will treat traditions built around national and/or ethnic experience, but traditions and counter traditions built around gender, religion, or class are also possible.

EN 083.01 Literature: Traditions and Countertraditions: How Identities Are Made (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

This writing-intensive course considers how ideas about “normalcy” affect those considered outside of the dominant culture. Texts that we examine rely on ambiguities inherent in definitions of normalcy to “write” their experiences. Our task, then, is to investigate how such writers re/create identities out of norms that sometimes discount them. Our interpretations will expand what we know about what is “normal.” Required readings may come from the following genres: drama, novel, short story, and autobiography. The methodology for this course is “close reading.” Students will spend a significant amount of time reading, analyzing, discussing, and writing about the assigned works.

EN 083.02 Literature: Traditions and Countertraditions (Fall: 3)

Satisfies Literature Core Requirement

This course examines literature by and about Latinos and Asian Americans. These two literary traditions are perhaps the most understudied of any ethnic group in the United States, though this is changing quickly. We will contribute to this change by exploring how earlier writers from each group were driven by a concern for social and economic justice. This tradition of concern is very much alive today, though it has also been coupled with the rise of writers who might be described as neo-conservative, such as Richard Rodriguez and Eric Liu, and who perhaps constitute an emerging counter-tradition.

What does freedom mean to these two groups of Americans? One roamed free on the land until it was taken from them, while the other was brought to this country to be slaves. How does the loss of freedom affect them and how is this loss reflected in their literature? We will read traditional stories and contemporary ones of Native Americans and African-Americans to understand their culture, their difficulties in America, and their unique literature. Readings will include: some traditional tales of both cultures, short stories, Paula Gunn Allen’s Spider Woman’s Granddaughters, Silko’s Ceremony, slave narratives, Frederick Douglass, and Morrison’s Beloved.

This course will explore the Native American text both in terms of its qualities and content and in terms of European expectations of such texts. Within the Native American tradition, we will move toward an analysis of the texts in terms of a masculine or feminine viewpoint. Course requirements will include papers, class presentations, and class participation.

Possible texts include: Love Medicine by Louise Erdrich, House Made of Dawn by N. Scott Momaday, Ceremony by Leslie Marmon Silko, Spider Woman’s Granddaughters by Paula Gunn Allen, American Indian Literature by Alan Velie and Reservation Blues by Sherman Alexie.

Conducted in French

This course will examine French perspectives on the peoples of the Americas through a close reading of texts selected from a variety of disciplines. From the early modern period to the present, letters, travel accounts, engravings, essays and narrative fiction have borne witness to attempts of the French to understand peoples different from themselves in the Americas. We will study a number of representative works and interact with specialists. We will then reconsider each text in the light of these multifaceted readings.

EN 010 First Year Writing Seminar (Fall/Spring: 3)

The First Year Writing Seminar is a fifteen-student course designed to engage students with writing as a source of learning and a form of communication. Designed as a workshop, in which each student develops a portfolio of personal and academic writing, the seminar follows a semester-long process. Students write and rewrite essays continuously, discuss their works-in-progress in class, and receive feedback during individual and small group conferences with the instructor. In connection with their writing, students read a wide range of texts, including various forms of non-fiction prose. In addition to regular conferences, the class meets two hours per week to discuss the writing process, the relationship between reading and writing, conventional and innovative ways of doing research, and evolving drafts of class members.

This course will provide an overview of British and Irish history in the 19th and 20th centuries by exploring issues of nationalism and culture within both the United Kingdom and Ireland. Although Ireland and Irish-British relations will be the primary focus of the course students will also consider how Scotland and Wales have developed dual identities which enable citizens of both nations to consider themselves “British” as well as Scottish or Welsh.

Key topics include work, education, feminism and women’s rights, imperialism, sexuality, marriage and family, and migration. The course will examine women of all social classes and from both urban and rural settings. While it centers on women of England and Ireland, it will also seek to include the unique experience of women from Scotland and Wales.

HS 290 The Roaring Twenties and the Great Depression (Spring: 3)

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

This course examines the period between the two world wars in terms of the themes, preoccupations, and cultural developments that characterized the two decades. Major emphases will be upon the contrast between the political void of the Twenties and activism during the Depression, hero worship, the growth of organized sports, the Harlem Renaissance, the golden age of movies, literary and radical dissent, and the second coming of world war. Because the era was the time of prime development for film, we will resort heavily to that form of imagery.

HS 300.66 Study and Writing of History: Class: Workers and Bourgeois in Modern Europe (Spring: 3)

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094; history major status

Most BC students identify themselves as middle-class. What does that mean? What makes a middle class different from a working class? This course follows the making of a working class and middle class in modern Europe to explore these questions. Throughout the 19th and 20th centuries, middle-class and working class people redefine themselves in relation to each other. We will look at how a particular social identity has changed against the backdrop of industrialization, war and revolution, and globalization. The last part of the course examines the role of labor and class in the contemporary west.

MU 030 History of Rock and Roll and Popular Music in the United States (Fall: 3)

If we regard music as an integral part of culture in areas of the world not considered to be part of Western society, it seems logical that we can also study popular music of the United States in this way-as the manifestation of a late-stage, postmodern, technological, multicultural society working within the framework of capitalism and democracy. This course investigates the ways in which rock-and-roll and popular music have both shaped postmodern American (and, by extension, world) culture and have been shaped by it

UN 504.01 Capstone: Choice and Consequence in Technology and Society (Fall: 3)

The 20th century has seen a dizzying rate of technological development. This remarkable progress is accompanied by new hazards, unspeakable cruelties, perhaps irreversible damage to the earth, and a vast economic gulf between the developed and the developing nations. As custodians of our unique spaceship, earth, we must remain in charge of our technology, moderate our infatuation with technological innovation, be alert to its unintended consequences, and be ever aware of our obligation to posterity.

In this Capstone, we will examine our experience with 20th century technology—the good and the bad. We aim to develop a responsible stewardship in life beyond college, and to value career choices that encompass more than simply economic gain as a measure of success and satisfaction.

Our task will be divided into three distinct phases: First, we will review the major technological innovations since the end of the nineteenth century and assess their impact on us and on the world. Second, we will keep a journal record of our experiences relevant to their impact on our daily lives, developing details as we discuss the issues in class. Finally, we will consider whether we are better off than generations that preceded us, and how best we can focus on what is to come in light of what we have now, and in light of our obligations to posterity.

Among the sources we might use are the following: Fredrich Georg Juenger, The Failure of Technology, Aldous Huxley, Brave New World, David Halberstam, The Next Century, Frederick Lewis Allen, Only Yesterday, Phillip

Explanation of Course Numbers

The Boston College Course Number consists of seven characters. The first two characters (alphabetic prefix, e.g., "MA") indicate the department or program offering the course; the last two characters indicate the section number. Schedule of Courses—Fall Semester 2000

Explanation of Course Numbers

The Boston College Course Number consists of seven characters. The first two characters (alphabetic prefix, e.g., “MA”) indicate the department or program offering the course; the last two characters indicate the section number. The middle three characters indicate the level of the course. When listing courses the entire seven-character symbol must be used as well as the four digit INDEX number which appears to the left of the course. For example: 9999 MA333.01.

University Courses and Capstones
No student may take more than one Capstone seminar during his/her undergraduate years. Thus, you may not take two Capstone courses in one semester or two different semesters. This is true whether the course is listed under UN numbers, or as a course in a specific department. If a second Capstone course appears on your record, it will be removed. This could make you ineligible for graduation.

Final Exam Information

All courses have a scheduled exam time determined by the starting time of the course. This listing shows standard class meeting time exam assignments for undergraduate courses. In general, common exams are held at 4 pm. If a course does not fit exactly into a module, it assumes the module corresponding to the closest class meeting time. For example, a class meeting T TH 11 is assigned module 10 (T TH 10:30*). In situations where the non-standard time falls halfway between two modules, use the module for the later time. For example, a class meeting M W F 9:30 is assigned module 03 (M W F 10).

All graduate courses meeting once a week and undergraduate courses that start at 4:00 pm or later and meet once a week will have final exams on the first regular class day that occurs during the exam week. All graduate courses meeting more than once a week and undergraduate courses that start at 4:00 pm or later and meet more than once a week will have final exams on the class day that is earliest in the calendar week. For example, the final exam for a T TH 4pm class would be held Tuesday at 4pm. Exams will be held at the usual class meeting time and location unless otherwise posted on the exam schedule.

The meeting place for each exam will be posted in Lyons basement one week prior to the exam period. Exam information is also available on U-View.

If there is a storm during the examination period, there is the expectation that exams will be held as scheduled. In the very rare instance that the exam schedule is delayed or postponed due to inclement weather or other emergency situations, the first available of the following days will be used: The Sunday during the exam week, the afternoon of the last exam day, and the day after the last exam day. If rescheduling is necessary, announcements will be made on WBZ, WRKO, and WBMX, and on the Boston College INFO line (552-4636). For graduate and professional students, announcements concerning final exams will be made on the same radio stations and on 552-INFO. Students are responsible for attending final exams at the scheduled times. In addition, students should consider possible exam rescheduling when making travel plans at the end of the semester.

Students are expected to take no more than two final exams in any one day. If a student has three exams scheduled in one day and one of these is a common exam, it is the responsibility of the instructor holding the common exam to give a make-up exam. If a student has three regularly scheduled exams (this can happen if the student is taking a course that meets at 4:00 pm or later), the instructor teaching the course outside of the standard time blocks (8 am-3 pm) should provide a make-up exam. In addition, if a student has a conflict between a common exam and a regularly scheduled late afternoon or evening course exam, the responsibility for a make-up lies with the instructor offering the common exam.

U-View via Modem

Modem Setup

- In your communications package, set your modem speed to the speed rated for your modem. The other settings remain the same: 8 bits, no parity, hardware handshake or flow control. Error correction should be turned off.

Logging On

- Use your communications software (Mac Terminal, ZTerm, Reflection, ProComm, YTerm, e.g.) to dial the modem pool number appropriate for your modem: 552 3020 for 2400 bps or LESS, 552 0999 for 4800 or GREATER. Long Distance dial: 1 617 552 3020 (or 1 617 552 0999). Use SPACES to separate the numbers!
- You should see CONNECT 2400/REL (speed varies by modem). You MAY have to press <RETURN> several times to establish a connection. Then you will see Servename for Quest/U-View is BCVMCMS.
- Press the <ENTER>or <RETURN> once or twice and you will see Enter Username>. Enter your BC user-name and press <RETURN>.
- You will see the prompt Type “C” Servename>. For U-View or Quest, type c then a space then BCVMCMS. NOTE: Typing 6100 and 8400 will NOT work.
- Press <RETURN>. On the blank line under Please enter a terminal id; prompt, type 1 for VT100, unless you know that your machine is otherwise.
- The BC screen will appear. Type your username on the Enter your Username, Eagle Number...: prompt and press <RETURN>. (You can use any of the listed options.)
- Tab once and type your PIN (Personal Identification Number) on the Enter Your PIN Number: prompt and press <RETURN>.
- You are now at the APPLICATION MENU screen of UIS. Select the application you wish to use (e.g., UIS, QUEST) and type its corresponding number on the SELECTION=> prompt and press <RETURN>. (For U-View, type 1 for the UIS system.)
- You are now at the System menu for UIS. Your options will vary. Type the number for U-View (or other service) on the ENTER SELECTION line and press <RETURN>.

Logging Off

- If you are using UIS mail, return to its main menu. Type L on the ENTER YOUR CHOICE line and press <RETURN>.
- If you are using U-Buy, return to its main menu. Type L on the TYPE SELECTION HERE...> line and press <RETURN>.
- If you are using U-View, return to its main menu. Type L on the TYPE SELECTION HERE...> line and press <RETURN>.
- The APPLICATION MENU screen will appear. Type L on the SELECTION=> line and press <RETURN>.
- You are now at the BC screen. Type Y on the Enter “Y” to disconnect: prompt and press <RETURN>.
- At the Type “C” Servename> prompt, type log to disconnect.
- “C” option on U-View Plus (View Courses) can now access both fall and spring courses.

U-View Plus

Instructions are posted in the Student Learning and Support Center and in O’Neill 248.

U-Dial

- Call the Boston College Voice Response Unit: 617-552-8800
- If you are calling outside the 617 area code, be sure to dial 1 + 617 before 552-8800.
- Enter your Eagle Number or your social security number upon request.
- Enter your 5-digit personal information number (PIN).
- Once you have accessed the voice response unit, the tape will list the main menu of transactions. (Review the selections below to be sure you understand the differences between transactions.) The system will then request that you choose a transaction by pressing one of the following:
TO ADD A COURSE: If you wish to add a course, press 1 when prompted to do so.

Then follow the instructions at each prompt until the add transaction is completed.

TO DROP A COURSE: If you wish to drop a course, press 2 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions at each prompt until the drop transaction is completed.

TO ADD AND DROP A COURSE: If you wish to drop one course and then add one course, press 3 when prompted to do so and follow the instructions at each prompt until the drop/add transaction is completed. This transaction will not complete the drop unless you successfully add one course in its place; therefore, you shouldn’t worry when the drop transaction appears not to have gone through. This transaction should be used if you are changing the corequisite for a course (a lab or a discussion group).

TO CHECK THE STATUS OF A COURSE: If you wish to check quickly to see if a particular course is open, press 4 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions to check the status of the course.

TO LIST COURSES: Press 5 to hear the courses you are currently registered for or to confirm your transaction(s).

TO END CALL: Press 9 to disconnect from the Voice Response Unit. Be sure to listen carefully to instructions as you proceed with any transaction. If you make a mistake at any time, press * to start over.

Once you are familiar with the system, you can bypass the recorded message by entering the information requested at the beginning of the prompt.

Problems/Error Messages

You may encounter a problem or receive an error message while using the voice response unit. The most probable messages/problems and solutions are listed as follows.

Problem/MessageProbable Solution

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. Can’t access system | Use a touch-tone phone not a rotary phone, or try from another phone. Your phone may be malfunctioning. |
| 2. System not available | You are calling outside the hours 8:00 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. seven days a week. Please call during U-Dial hours. OR the system is experiencing unscheduled downtime. Please call back in 15 minutes. |
| 3. Busy Signal | The system’s incoming telephone lines are all in use. Try again later. |
| 4. System does not answer | The Voice Response Unit is not functioning. Try again later. |
| 5. Wrong ID | Check to make sure that you are inputting your Eagle or social security number correctly. |
| 6. Wrong PIN | Check to make sure that you are inputting your PIN correctly. |
| 7. Wrong index numbers | Check to make sure that you are inputting the correct 4-digit index number, not the course number (e.g., 9999 rather than EN999.09). Refer to the Schedule of Courses for index numbers. |
| 8. Time Conflict message | Check the Schedule of Courses or the Course Status List available on U-View Plus . If there is still a problem, there may have been a time change. What is on the computer is correct since it is the most up-to-date. |
| 9. The course you want is <ul style="list-style-type: none">• a sixth course | Students in A&S, CSOM, and SON who maintain a 3.00 GPA, may add a sixth course on-line (up to 20 credits) during the first week of classes. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• restricted to a major or school | You must get the appropriate departmental approval to be allowed to override these restrictions. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• closed or requires department | For all these restrictions, see the department. If they issue an override, obtain the necessary stamp(s) and/or signature(s) and bring the approved form to Lyons 101 by 4:30 P.M. on September 11. |

If the above does not resolve your problem, or if you have a difficult problem, call 617-552-3300 during business hours, Monday-Friday 8:45 A.M. to 4:45 P.M.

Connecting To UIS via an Eaglenet Connection

TN3270 on the IBM

TN3270 is a software tool that allows your networked IBM to establish ‘terminal sessions’ with IBM mainframe computers such as the Boston College UIS System or the QUEST system in order to access U-View or Quest.

Starting TN3270

Double-click on the TN3270 icon. It is located in the PC/TCP Applications window located in your Program Manager.

Logging on to UIS

- Once you have double-clicked on the TN3270 icon, you will see the Open dialog. If this is your first time using this program, the Sessions Available: box will be blank.
- NOTE: The programs TNVT and TN3270 use the same dialogs, so if you save a session in TNVT and then open TN3270, you will see it in the Sessions Available box as well.
- Click on the Cancel button. You will now see a blank screen. Choose New... from the Session menu at the top of your screen.
- You will now see the New dialog. Type bcvmcms.bc.edu in the Host Name or IP Address: box and click on the Connect button.
- You will see a message, Trying to connect to bcvmcms.bc.edu then Entering 3270 mode in the lower left corner of your screen. The BC screen will now appear. Follow the on-screen instructions.
- If you do not know your username, consult your Communications Directory.
- If you have forgotten your PIN (Personal Identification Number), you must go to the HELP Center in person or the O’Neill Computing Facility and present your valid Boston College ID. An authorized person will then look it up.

Saving a Session

(“shortcuts” to connect to a host)

Boston College’s University Information System (UIS) is being used for this example. You can save any other session to any other host in the same way.

- Open a connection to UIS or any other Host computer.
- Once you are through, log out of UIS as you normally do. Choose Close from the Session menu.
- You will now see the TN3270 dialog asking you if you want to save this session. Click on Yes.
- You will now see the Save As dialog box. Type UIS or bcvmcms (matter of preference) in the New Session Name box. Click on the Save button.

Opening an existing session

(using “shortcuts”)

- Double-click on the TN3270 icon if you are not logged in, or choose Open from the Session menu if TN3270 is already open. You must close a current session to open a new one.
- You will now see the Open dialog box. You should see UIS or bcvmcms (depending on what you named it) in the Sessions Available: box.
- Click on the name to highlight and click on the Connect button. You should now see the BC screen.

Quitting TN 3270

- Log out of whatever system you are currently connected to.
- Choose Close from the Session menu.
- Choose Exit from the File menu. You will be asked if you want to save the session. If you have already saved a session document for UIS, or any other Host computer, click No.

Telnet Users

- Choose New... from the Session menu at the top of your screen.

TN3270 on the Macintosh

TN3270 is a software tool that allows your networked Macintosh to establish ‘terminal sessions’ with IBM mainframe computers such as Boston College, UIS or QUEST systems in order to access U-View or Quest.

Starting TN3270

- Double-click on the TN3270 icon.

Logging on to UIS

- Choose Open Connection from the File menu.
- Type BCVMCMS.BC.EDU in the Session name box and click on the OK button.
- The UIS Login screen will appear. Type your username and the <TAB> key. If you do not know your username, consult your Communications Directory. (Your username is on the last line of your personal information, before the colon.
Ex.: USERJOE:USERJOE@HERMES.BC.EDU; USERJOE is the username.)
- Type your Personal Identification Number at the PIN: prompt and press <RETURN/ENTER>.
- If you have forgotten your PIN, you must go to the HELP Center, Gasson 12, or the O’Neill Computing Facility in person and present your valid Boston College ID. An authorized person will then look it up.
- You are now at the main screen of B.C.’s UIS system.

Shortcut to UIS

- If you mainly log on to BC’s UIS System, you can automatically advance to the login screen and skip the Open Connection and Session name boxes.
- Within the TN3270 folder, you will see two documents: “UIS System/Color” and ‘UIS System/B&W’. If you double-click on either of these documents, you will immediately advance to the Username: prompt.
- If you have a color monitor, double-click on the ‘UIS System/Color’ icon. If you have a black and white (or ‘greytone’) monitor double-click on the ‘UIS System/B&W’ icon.
- To make a connection choose Open Session from the File menu. Type BCVMCMS.BC.EDU as the Session name.
- Click ok
